International Society for Prosthetics and Orthotics

CONSUMER DAY

Web site: www.ispo.ca/congress/consumer.html

What is Consumer Day?

A jam-packed one-day programme with: Health Talks and Interactive Workshops by prominent experts in their fields; access to an expansive Exhibit Hall with over 150 booths; an array of resource materials; and an opportunity to network with others.

All areas of life for a person who lives with a disability are affected by it to some degree. The diverse Consumer Day Program focuses on practical information on many of those areas.

Who is it for?

Consumer Day is a must if you:

- live with a disability
- participate in or run a disability group or
- are a health care professional whose clientele has a disability

How to Register?

Registration is easy – either complete an on-line registration form at <http://www.ispo.ca/congress/consumer.html> or call 1-877-622-2472 (or 613 731-3821), ext. 234. Registration on-site on the day of the event is also possible, although pre-registering is highly recommended.

A fee of CDN$25.00, paid on-site on the day of the event, includes the full one-day programme, a boxed lunch, coffee breaks, and a bag with great resource material! VISA, MasterCard, or cash accepted.

Where will it be?

Vancouver Convention & Exhibition Centre (VCEC)
999 Canada Place
Vancouver BC V6C 3C1
Canada

When is it?

Wednesday, August 1st, 2007 – See you there!

Transportation

Downtown Vancouver is transportation-friendly – Sky Train, West Coast Express and Seabus all have terminals conveniently located adjacent to the Vancouver Exhibition and Convention Centre and all options are efficient, clean and accessible. Fare is CDN$3.25 for one way.

Cab fare from the Vancouver International Airport to the VCEC is approximately CDN$30.00.

Parking is available at the VCEC for a daily rate of CDN$17.00. There is also parking available in either multi-level lots or underground throughout the downtown core.
